

Poutnictví: Alternative Reading For Daily Rhythms

Weeks 5-10

Eyes on Jesus

Forget everything you know about Jesus. You don't know him. He's a foreigner, an alien; comes from a different culture, religion and region. His ways and words and habits are not yours. He is out of this world, flesh and blood and God. He's nothing you'd expect or make up. He is not you. Yet he wants to be known and seen by you.

Thus we will spend 10 weeks in the Gospel of Mark in our morning rhythms, then return to the same text in the evening, or just meditate on one or two verses of your choosing. Come to the text open, expectant. Come to Jesus to encounter and know him. As you read, consider three questions and write out your answers:

- What do you see him doing?
- How does he love?
- What is he like (personality, character, heart)?

So sit. Breath. Watch. Listen. Ponder. Take notes. Pray. Keep your eyes on Jesus. Let him surprise you. Worship. Question. Feel. Ask. Come close.
